

“Wings” (2018)
Quilts on the Wall

*If I had wings, I'd fly up to heaven.
I'd look down from the clouds, on everything
then I could find all the things we've been missin'.
I would have all the answers, if I had wings.*

DARIUS C. RUCKER

The textile artist approaches a theme challenge to express their personal style with the emotion attached to the theme.

“Wings” can be ethereal such as a structure with which gods, angels, or demons, are provided for the purpose of flying.

Or, the term can be utilitarian and literal: an arm of a human being, especially a baseball player's pitching or throwing arm, a means or instrument of flight, travel, or progress.

Wings are movement...They are winging to the coast or a bird on the wing.

To be under one's wing, under one's protection, care, or patronage comes from the mother bird protecting her young.

Or, maybe the artist will just “wing it”... improvise.
